

BEAT FRANKENFELD IN LOWER MERION

Loses Contest for Township Treasurer by Margin of 133 Votes

CLEAN SWEEP IN ABINGTON

Republicans won all the offices they sought in Abington and Cheltenham Townships and a bitter fight for Lower Merion Township Treasurer, within the Republican ranks, was won by Joseph J. Skelton.

Mr. Skelton, who ran against William G. Frankenfeld as an independent Republican, received 2947 votes, while his opponent, who won the regular Republican nomination by a small majority September 29, received 2814.

Mr. Skelton, in a brief statement today, said he was prepared to step in and conduct the office of treasurer to the best of his ability. He credited his victory to the women voters of the township.

In spite of the closeness of the battle, Skelton's supporters, apparent confidence of victory had engaged a band to celebrate early in the evening. As soon as the returns were announced the Skelton cohorts, headed by the newly elected Treasurer, and followed by the band started a parade through Ardmore and Bryn Mawr.

At the former town, which is a rabid Frankenfeld stronghold, they passed through virtually deserted streets, as residents, untainted by defeat, refused to give their enemies the satisfaction of recognition. Sent in the office of a friend in Ardmore, Mr. Frankenfeld, who is an undertaker, took his defeat quite philosophically. As his friends entered to break to him the sad news, he cheerfully remarked: "Well, now, he cheerfully remarked: 'Well, well, here come the pallbearers." Harold Cross, Philadelphia, owner, was elected Treasurer of Abington Township by a majority of 1147.

The Abington Township school loan of $450,000 carried by 280 majority. Edwin Linson was elected Treasurer of Cheltenham Township by 1500 majority.

The Cheltenham school loan of $800,000 carried by 384. Edward Bellis was elected Chief Burgess of Jenkintown by a majority of approximately 200.

In Abington Township Mrs. H. C. La Rue, candidate for School Director, led the entire ticket. The other directors elected are William Wooley and Alexander Todd.

German Marks Rally Slightly
New York, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—The German marks rallied one-fourth of one cent to 42 cent today, following earlier announcing a sharp recovery in the London market. Monday's low figure was .32 cent.

1000 MARINES GUARDING MAIL TRAINS OF NATION
Navy Men Will Be Replaced Later by Postal Recruits
Washington, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—With a declaration of "open warfare" by the Postoffice Department on the bandits responsible for the startling series of mail robberies, 1000 United States marines were proceeding to duty today as guards on mail trains and trucks and at postoffices in fifteen cities.

Secretary of the Navy was made by Postmaster General Hays late yesterday after the matter had been discussed at the Cabinet meeting. President Harding was said to have expressed approval of Mr. Hays' plan.

The marines later, it was said, are to be replaced by a special force recruited for the postal service.
